Greetings and Announcements

Prelude

*Call to Worship (Based on Psalm 65:9-13)

God visits the earth and waters it

Greatly enriching the earth.

God waters the earth, softening it with showers,

And blessing the earth.

Along with the hills, the meadows, and the valleys,

Let us shout and sing together for joy!

*Opening Prayer

Loving God, you created life in us and all around us.

Open us to receive your gifts of your world and your word that we may be not just hearers of the word, but doers also. Amen.

*Opening Hymn Praise to the Living God

8

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

Gracious God,

we acknowledge that we too often take for granted

your gifts to us: our lives, this world, and your word to us.

When we receive your word,

may we nurture it so that it grows roots within us.

May we not be distracted by the lure of wealth or the cares of the world.

Let us be good soil, receiving your word, understanding it, and acting upon it. Amen.

*Assurance of Pardon(based on Romans 8:1-11)

We claim what the apostle Paul teaches:
the Spirit of God dwells in you.
You are forgiven and free.
There is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

Thought for the Day

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.
Amen.

The Scriptures

Matthew 13:1-9,18-23      NT Page 13

Reader:    The Word of God for the people of God.

All:            Thanks be to God.

Sermon

Pastoral Prayer

Offering of Tithes, Gifts and Lives to Christ's Service

Anthem A Scottish Blessing

- D. Blackwell
ERUCC Singers

*Closing Hymn Come to Tend God's Garden

586

*Benediction (Based on Isaiah 55: 12-13)

Go out in joy and be led back in peace.
The mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song,
And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.
Go from here in the joy of God,
secure in God's presence around you and within you.

Worship Next Week: July 19

Ctrl + Click HERE to join worship next Sunday at 10:30 a.m.

In Romans 8:12–25, Paul demonstrates the relationality of God and God's people through the language of adoption. God offers believers a new familial structure in which they are rightful heirs to God's realm. One in a series of parables about the reign of God, Jesus' teaching in Matthew 13:24–30, 36–43 invites hope-filled trust in God. There is mystery in how God plants, nurtures, and weeds to secure a harvest of promise.

Help Wanted: AV Team Members for Sundays.

In the coming weeks we will be starting to use three people to support the audio and live stream for Sunday services. This is not difficult to learn and we will provide training. There will always be someone experienced there with you. If you are interested, please contact Jeff Schaeberle at jschaeberle@comcast.net 301.639.6197 (m)

SUMMER WORSHIP AT ERUCC

Wednesdays at 6 p.m. in the Parking Lot

We plan to hold worship outdoors on the parking lot and patio behind the main church building each Wednesday at 6 pm. We will spread ourselves out and maintain the required and appropriate physical distancing. This decision may be changed if conditions change per the recommendations from the health department.

Pastor Daniel will be leading the service and Brenda Hedges will be providing music.

Join Tuesday Bible Study via Zoom: <https://zoom.us/j/608416206> pw 522188

Each Monday, we will send out a Bible study sheet. The passage will be one of the lessons from the previous Sunday's scripture readings. You are invited to use the material for your own personal reflection and, if you wish, join a Zoom call on Tuesdays at 11:00 am to discuss the passage with others.

If you wish to be added to this Bible Study mailing, please let Amy know: aaguilar@erucc.org

THURSDAY EVENING BIBLE STUDY from 6-7 p.m.

Called to be the Church: The Book of Acts for a New Day

(If you are interested in participating in this study, contact the church office for the materials)

As we study Acts we see a church that is dynamic and alive, not static or stuck. The gospel message and movement did not come to an end with Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection. There was a whole new beginning, one that no one could have predicted. In so many ways, Acts is the perfect book for a God is still speaking Church. Here more truth and light breaks forth from God's Holy Word each new day as the movement of faith spreads like wildfire.

Among the matters to which Acts pays attention, in addition to leadership and conflict, are cultural diversity and the encounter with people who are not of our race or culture; the use of wealth and possessions; the role of women in the church; the relationship between church and state or between Christians and civil authorities; and the challenge of persecution. Beyond that, Acts is full of rollicking good stories and adventures.

July 9        Acts 2: 1-47
July 16        Acts 3: 1-26

July 23        Acts 4: 1-31
July 30        Acts 4: 32- 5: 11

“Our Healing Table” with Hanan Rasheed

Tuesday, July 14 6 – 7 pm

In 1973, at the age of 14, Hanan Rasheed emigrated from Palestine to the Bay Area in California. Undeterred by the failure of diplomats to bring peace and security to Palestinians and Israelis, Rasheed began practicing “hummus diplomacy,” believing that peace can be achieved when ordinary citizens on both sides meet face to face to eat together and listen to one another. The healing table, Rasheed explains, is a table where the dishes have the same ingredients but different flavors, where peoples of conflict can meet as humans having the same rights and needs. Chef Hanan Rasheed is a Palestinian-American who believes a beautiful meal has the power to unite. At a time when the world faces unprecedented distrust and division, the culinary arts may prove the start of a healing conversation. A mother of five and grandmother of eight, Rasheed is a graduate of the Institute of Culinary Education in New York City who uses her talent to teach others about Palestinian culture and cuisine. This talk was given at a TEDx event using the TED conference format but independently organized by a local community.

A CONVERSATION WITH CHRIS SPEAR

Chefs Without Restaurants

Monday, July 20 from 7-8:30 pm

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/84865331973?pwd=Y25NMjVHSXFoSmVua0YwdG84OWNXQT09>

Meeting ID: 848 6533 1973 Password: 909890

Our own Chris Spear interviewed Chef Hanan Rasheed and there is so much in his interview to share and reflect on. We will watch the Podcast as a group, pausing along the way for discussion. Rasheed reflects on her Palestinian roots, her love of cooking, and the ways in which she believes that food can bring people together.

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

July 12, 2020

Matthew 13:1-9, 18-23

A House Divided

The story begins,

"Listen! A sower went out to sow..."

And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up...

There was the time I did not get very far. I had just started on the path, just begun to follow Christ, when I got scared and stalled out. I was eaten up by worry and doubt.

Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away...

There was a time when I believed if only I studied or thought enough, I would be able to understand Christ's way. I did not know that Christ's way had to be grounded in my heart as well as my head. My faith withered away.

Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them.

Another time, I tried to turn toward Christ, but became distracted. It wasn't too long before I was choking on the expectation of our consumerist culture and my own grasping heart.

Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

And yet again, I arrived in a community, a congregation like this one. Sometimes there were weeds and rocks. But like rich soil, that community nurtured me, helped me to grow strong in my faith.

We aren't, any of us, only one thing. Most of us have had all of these experiences at one time or another. Let this be our prayer: "Whether we get carried away or wither, suffocate or grow strong, help us to remember that you are with us always, Holy God. Amen."
