

PRAISE
THE HOLY ONE

Thank you for worshipping with us this morning. We extend a special welcome to our guests.

For Children: We have trained nursery staff (paid nursery attendant as well as adult volunteers) for ages 0-4. The nursery is located on the first floor outside of the Community Room. (Accessible by the stairs from the Church Street Entrance or via the elevator). Children ages 5 and above are invited to stay and worship with their families. Children's programs, books, and crayons are located in the rear of the sanctuary near the welcome table.

Hymn selections can be found in the black hymnals in the pew racks or printed in the bulletin. If you are visiting and did not stop at the welcome desk in the downstairs lobby please stop by after the service they would love to meet you or, please feel free to reach out to someone sitting near you and ask them questions about the service or church. Many of our visitors ask us about the time of offering. This is a time in our service when we respond to God's gifts of love by offering the gifts of our lives. For many of us, this is when we make a financial gift towards the ministries and programs of our church. We also use this time to ask God how we might use the gifts of our hands and hearts in sharing God's love. If you are visiting, there is no obligation to give a financial gift. We are just glad you are worshipping with us. At this time we are taking offering at the end of the service. Plates for offering will be placed at the doors as you exit the sanctuary. Thank you.

We ask that you please silence your cell phones during our worship service. We also ask that you refrain from applause after our choirs sing and allow the music to resonate in the quiet of the sanctuary and in your hearts. Our musicians are playing and singing for the glory of God. They know you appreciate their efforts and their gift.

Rest rooms (equipped with changing stations) are located on the first floor of the church building and outside the Community Room and the Nursery.

There is much information about the church in this bulletin and our website: www.erucc.org.

Prelude

*Call to Worship      (based upon Hebrews 10:22-25)

Come into this time of worship by the new and living way in Christ Jesus.

We come with true hearts in full assurance of our faith.

Come with joyful expectation.

We gather in full confidence of the gospel's promise.

Let us praise God together and open ourselves to the power of the Holy Spirit.

All: That we may encourage and support each other to love our neighbors as ourselves and to be God's instruments of grace.

*Opening Prayer (in unison)

In you, O God, we find refuge from our turbulent world.

We work each day to bear witness to your justice through our ministries.

While the journey towards true peace that lies ahead is long, our incremental steps continue to take us closer to that promised day.

Renew in us the strength, faith, and courage we need to persevere so that the promised day will come when your will will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

*Opening Hymn I Will Arise and Go to Jesus

RESTORATION

Come, ye sinners, poor and needy,
Weak and wounded, sick and sore;
Jesus ready stands to save you,
Full of pity, love and power.

Refrain

I will arise and go to Jesus,
He will embrace me in His arms;
In the arms of my dear Savior,
O there are ten thousand charms.

Come, ye thirsty, come, and welcome,
God's free bounty glorify;
True belief and true repentance,
Every grace that brings you nigh.                      Refrain

Come, ye weary, heavy laden,
Lost and ruined by the fall;
If you tarry till you're better,
You will never come at all.                      Refrain

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Living God, from the beginning you have been teaching us what goodness is and how human beings should live together:
with integrity and justice, each one a refuge for the others.
Forgive our hard-heartedness, our lack of imagination, our inability to read the value of each person and
to bring out the best in everyone we meet.

God, forgive us: we have made such a chaos of the earth.
Forgive our lust for power and religious strife,
separating us from one another and sapping all life's joys.
Teach us humility, keep our hope alive, sustain our love for all humanity,
until conflict is stifled and we stand together in your silence which is filled with eternal praise: with Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Today we welcome Central Atlantic Conference Minister, Rev. Freeman L. Palmer. Rev. Palmer began this call in February 2019 after serving nine years as Associate Conference Minister, Congregational Development for the New York Conference of the United Church of Christ. Originally from Washington DC and a proud alumnus of Georgetown Day School, Rev. Palmer is a second career minister, attending seminary after a fifteen-year career as a broadcasting executive with CBS Inc. Rev. Palmer's educational background includes a BA in Economics from Swarthmore College, an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania, and a Master's in Divinity with Honors from New York Theological Seminary. Rev. Palmer was ordained at New York City's Riverside Church in 2004 to his first call as an Associate Minister at Middle Collegiate Church in Manhattan. After living twenty years in Jersey City, NJ, Rev. Palmer relocated with his spouse, Donal, an ordained ELCA minister, to Baltimore MD, where they welcomed their nine-month-old puppy Pooh. A prayer that Rev. Palmer offers daily is Psalm 143:10, "Teach me to do your will, for you are my God. May your Good Spirit lead me on level ground (NIV)."

Worship Notes: Today's liturgy has been adapted from Worship Design Studio, the UCC Book of Worship, and Seasons of the Spirit.

The flowers on the altar are in loving memory of my father, William B. Kreh from Susan E. Kreh.

The yellow rose bud on the stand is placed by Jeanellen Kallevang in memory of my dad, Lt. Col. Charles Darrell Knight (USAF – Retired), who served in the Korean and Viet Nam Wars.

Weekly Education Opportunities for Adults

TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY with Pastor Daniel (North Room)

11:00 – Noon. On November 16, we will be studying Isaiah 40.

WEDNESDAY EVENING BIBLE STUDY with Esther Ziegler (Trinity Chapel)

7:00 – 8:30 p.m. We will be using curriculum based on The Greatest Controversies of Early Christian History and How Jesus Became God both written and presented in lectures by Bart D. Ehrman, the James S. Gray Distinguished Professor of New Testament at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. The format of the sessions will include a recorded lecture by Prof. Ehrman, followed by discussion facilitated by Esther Ziegler. The sessions cover a variety of topics spanning approximately the first 325 years of the Christian era. They range from questions about what the Bible really says about Jesus' birth to how the discovery of the Gnostic Gospels cast light on diverse Christian theologies from the 1st and 2nd centuries to how the Council of Nicea in 325 BC was influenced by Emperor Constantine. Join us in learning how Christians from the earliest days struggled to understand who Jesus was, and who he is to us as a result of 2100+ years of evolving faith.

THURSDAY EVENING STUDY with Richard Leslie (North Room)

7:00 – 8:30 p.m. Text: Richard Horsley, Covenant Economics (no need to purchase unless you want to – it is a bit of a hard read).

Walking in interstellar space requires a tether. It's a lifeline that is attached from the walker to the mother ship. Among other things, it keeps the space walker from drifting away. It is a necessary connector. "Our hearts were made to find their rest in God, and they are restless until they do" (Augustine). Many of us try to go it alone, in effect cutting the tether that links us with the mothership that is our mother/father God. We are drifters. This course will patiently and deeply explore the concepts of Covenant Love, Liberation Theology, and Social Justice (2000BCE-2000AD), and how they connect. Ambitious journey? Sure! Come with me. Let's travel together.

The Catoclin Association is 38 churches - a wide diversity of geography, faith, and practice, and yet one body. Separate and together, we labor side by side for a more just and generous world. That work is rooted in prayer - the prayers of our people, congregations, and the wider church.

On October 6, 2021, the Association launched 40 Days of Prayer, where we will pray for each congregation, by name. We want to kneel in prayer as one association in prayer for each other through 40 days, to practice our covenant commitments to each other to love and support one another as siblings in Christ, to strengthen and encourage each other as a new chapter of faith emerges in our region.

This week we pray for the following churches:

HOW TO BE ANTI-RACIST

Engagement, Conversations, Opportunities

“Becoming an anti-racist is a life-long journey. It happens in community with other committed people who journey together and commit to decentering whiteness, leaning into practices to decolonize socialized patterns of thinking and behaviors. The process includes relearning history, correcting false narratives, and working towards radical shifts in policies and structures that harm black lives.” (Velda Love)

Tonight, November 14 at 7 pm, we will discuss the movie, The Hate You Give.

Watch the movie at home and then engage in the conversation.

ERUCC TRADITIONAL WHITE GIFT PAGEANT

As one of ERUCC's 275th anniversary celebration activities, we will be performing the traditional White Gift Pageant on December 19. For those of you new to the congregation, you won't want to miss this opportunity. The White Gift Pageant has a long and rich history dating back many years at ERUCC. "White gifts" will be presented during the Pageant and laid at the manger, hence the name!

The Pageant provides opportunities for anyone who has a desire to participate to do so as a reader of a piece of the traditional Christmas story, through portrayal as one of the characters (angels, shepherds, etc.), or helping with sound and lighting. We invite you to join us this year for the Pageant. Please start thinking about how you might like to participate if you so desire. For more questions, please contact Trish Coffey at trishcoffey1195@gmail.com or 301-455-8720. Stay tuned for more details in the coming weeks!

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

November 14, 2021

1 Samuel 1:4-20

Praise the Holy One Stewardship Sunday

Today's reading ends on 1 Samuel 1:20, but the story of Hannah does not end there. Keep reading through 1 Samuel chapter two, and you'll hear something remarkable.

In chapter two, when Hannah receives good news that a hope long deferred has finally been realized, she bursts into song.

Her song, flowing from her grateful heart, has brought hope, encouragement, support and strength to generations of women and men who needed reassurance that God's love and presence are steadfast and strong. Her song for example, inspired another song by another woman of hope. Mary, the mother of Jesus, sings a song inspired by Hannah which you can find in Luke 1:46-55. If you compare the two songs, what do you notice that is different? What do you notice that is the same? How do you feel that the first song, by Hannah, inspired the second song, by Mary?

Maybe you also have been inspired by a piece of music and felt the desire to respond. If your response to life's ups and downs is to turn to music, then join United Church of Christ member and disability activist Karl Shallowhorn on his podcast, Mental Health Verses. In each episode, Karl interviews a guest about the music that has encouraged or supported them through various of life's difficulties.

Karl knows that music that inspires is meant to be shared and created to be passed from listener to listener. On the Facebook page for his podcast, Karl invites anyone who would like to "Just send an email to mentalhealth-verses@gmail.com with your song and the reason why it has supported you... whether it was a time you may have struggled, or simply when the tune has lifted your spirits to another level."

Who knows? Maybe like Mary, the music shared will encourage you to create and share music of your own.
