From Pastor Daniel

On May 11, a group of 15 of us will be traveling to Germany for our postponed and long-awaited trip to Europe to attend the world-famous Passion Play in Oberammergau, Germany. The villagers of Oberammergau first performed the play in 1634 in fulfillment of their promise to God for sparing them from the Black Plague, and it has been presented there every 10 years since. I am sure there will be a lot of reflection about how the 2020 production was postponed until 2022 because of the pandemic.

In addition to attending the Passion Play, we will visit some of the most beautiful parts of the world in Switzerland, southern Germany, and Austria.

Thanks for remembering the group in prayer as we travel.

Sunday, May 1 • 12 Noon Annual Congregational Meeting

The Consistory has voted to call the annual meeting for Sunday, May 1.

The meeting will be held in the Community Room immediately following worship, with lunch being served.

The agenda includes a review of the year 2021 and updates on the Trinity Steeple Project and columbarium projects. We will also elect new elders, deacons, and committee chairs.

Members and friends of the congregation may also participate via Zoom, on a computer, tablet, or phone, or by telephone.

Here is the call-in information for the meeting:

<https://bit.ly/3LzuUuV> Meeting ID: 862 9003 9301 Passcode: 499552

May 1 ~ Third Sunday of Easter

Acts 9:1-20 records Saul's encounter with the Risen Christ on the road to Damascus. Peter, in John 21:1-19, reverses his threefold denial of Jesus (John 18:15-27) with a threefold affirmation of love.

We will be serving communion this morning. The annual meeting of the congregation will follow morning worship.

May 8 ~ Fourth Sunday of Easter

In scripture, we encounter role models of discipleship that are expressed in compassionate words and deeds. Acts 9:36-43 tells the story of one such disciple, Tabitha, who ministers among the widows in her community. In John 10:22-30, Jesus reveals that his works testify to his identity. Jesus' actions reveal who he is.

The Senior Choir will be singing in worship this morning. We will be welcoming Aoife James Menchey Lynch.

May 15 ~ Fifth Sunday of Easter

A person may say, "The road to Hell is paved with good intentions." The wiser one says simply, "The road to Hell is paved." Seductively smooth, wide, and straight it runs, and by comparison, the Holy Way can at times seem like an old cow path meandering through the woods riddled with stones and hanging branches. Yet as followers of Christ, this shouldn't come as a surprise, and the glory of the destination, our joy in the company we keep, and our faith in the One who calls us can make it feel like we're walking on water. As we read from Psalm 148, Revelation 21:10, 22-22:5, and John 13:31-35, we'll explore what it means to "Go With the Flow" for God.

Rev. Michelle Beadle will be preaching this morning. The Senior Choir will be singing.

May 22 ~ Youth Sunday

ERUCC Youth will be leading worship this morning. Their theme is "What's On Our Minds." Come hear their thoughts about peace, mindfulness, and transitions.

Young Spirit will be singing.

May 29 ~ Seventh Sunday of Easter

In Acts 16:16-34 worship and prayer punctuate this story of liberation and freedom. It begins with Paul and Silas once again on their way to a place of worship and prayer. The story concludes in worship with the baptism of the jailer and his family, now set free from the fear imposed on their lives by the empire's domination, exploitation, and brutality. The power of Revelations 22:12-14, 16-17, 20-21 is not in the drama but in the invitation given to follow in this way of new life and freedom with the One who is the beginning and the end. We are offered the daring invitation to participate in the Spirit's new realm by drinking the water of life, offered as a gift. In John 17:20-26. Jesus' prayer for the community defines this new freedom as life in a relationship with God.

The Senior Choir will be singing.

Our Lenten Season was made special by so many people who contributed musically, artistically, and by feeding us delicious soup.

We extend special thanks to our Worship Design Team led by Ave Barr including Pat Condo, Mark Ulrich, Betsy Fisher, Pam Shepp, Nancy Jones, who created the beautiful art installation in the sanctuary, the hallway outside the sanctuary, and the art display in the hallway between the Marj Menchey Berkheimer Music Suite and the Liz Coffey Room. Their work helped us to worship with lives, Full to the Brim.

We thank our soup makers who prepared delicious soup each Wednesday during Lent – Barbara Rhoads, Donna, and Terry Logee, Patti Patterson, Peter Brehm, Betsy Selby, Susan Kulp, David Howard, Robin and David Cooney, and Kim Sexton. Special thanks to Eleanor Fisher who assisted in setting up and cleaning up every week.

We had several volunteers helping in the office over the past three months. One of the big projects was scanning church records, updating the database, and reconciling the database with the written record of baptisms, confirmations, marriages, and funerals in what we affectionately call the big red book. Kathy Gourlie's attention to detail and the time she gave to this project are so appreciated.

We also thank Cathie Duncan for organizing hundreds of sheets of paper related to our event work.

SUNDAY MORNING ADULT EDUCATION: MAY

LET'S TALK

9:30 – 10:15 a.m. (Community Room)

May 1 ~ Pastor Daniel will lead a discussion on the successes, opportunities, and challenges at ERUCC ahead of the congregational meeting being held at noon. This is a chance to ask questions and share ideas in a less formal setting. Everyone is welcome.

May 8 ~ The Youth will share reflections from their week-end of service at the Franklinton Center. Whether it is a skill learned, a friend made, or a fear faced, each person on a mission trip comes away changed in some way. Lessons from these trips can last a lifetime. Come to hear what our youth have to say!

May 15 ~ Have you ever wondered who does what at ERUCC? The Consistory will share information about the various committees, jobs, and roles done by lay members. Come learn about the myriad ways in which you can serve and add more joy to your life.

May 22 ~ Immigrants, refugees, and borders are constantly in the news, but the problems often seem far removed from our daily life in Frederick. Tricia Coffey will present some of her experiences at the US-Mexico border and Rebecca Shillingburg will share information about the Afghan refugee resettlement process in Frederick.

May 29 ~ Memorial Day Weekend! Fred Wenner will lead a walk to Memorial Park and introduce us to some “old friends,”: veterans of the Civil War, the two World Wars, the Korean and the Vietnam war who are memorialized there. You don't want to miss this!

This online Bible study, facilitated by Revs. John and Rebecca Shillingburg, offers anyone who attends ERUCC's Sunday worship service online a learning opportunity on Sunday morning, like those available to people who attend worship in person. We meet from 9-10:15 a.m. via Zoom. Since the first of the year, we have had an 8-week mini-course on how the Bible came down to us today and a 7-week mini-course on the Prologue in Genesis, the first 11 chapters. We will begin a new mini-course on Sunday, May 1, with the topic to be determined by those participating. We focus on learning new ways to read the scriptures faithfully; no experience is required — just a Bible. Join us! See Thursday Thoughts for the access info and the focus of the current mini-course.

THE RELIGIOUS COALITION - EMERGENCY FAMILY SHELTER

With help from our congregation, The Religious Coalition Beyond Shelter Campaign surpassed its goal of $3.5 million to support the new Emergency Family Shelter! Renovations have wrapped up, families have moved in, and this tremendous goal could not have been accomplished without YOUR help!

Our congregation pledged $25,000 to sponsor a counseling room — our goal was met and EXCEEDED in less than one year! In addition to this pledge, many congregation members made individual donations.

ERUCC was the very FIRST host site seven years ago and has continued to support the family shelter faithfully since. We are very proud to have been a part of this campaign and could not be prouder of the commitment ERUCC has shown the Frederick Community and the Religious Coalition!

Religious Coalition for Emergency Human Needs

Emergency Family Shelter Opens

The long-anticipated grand opening of Religious Coalition for Emergency Human Needs' (RCEHN) Emergency Family Shelter took place Sunday, February 27 before a gathering of more than 100 people. Religious Coalition Executive Director Nick Brown officially opened the 8,300 sf facility that provides 10 family suites.

"The Shelter will insure a level of normalcy for families that is important to emotional and physical stability," said Brown.

Completion of the $3 million project took place after years of planning and fundraising under the leadership of campaign Co-Chairs Rev. Dr. Barbara Kershner Daniel and Dr. Greg Rausch, MD, RCEHN board leadership, volunteers, and the dedicated commitment from the multi-denominational faith community. Other partners included The City of Frederick, Frederick County Government, the State of MD, community funders, public, private and individual donors. Delaplaine Foundation provided a $250,000 grant for the Shelter at the start of the project.

The 8,300 sf Shelter located on Hayward Road in Frederick will serve families in temporary need of emergency lodging.

"Our thanks to everyone in the community who helped make this possible," said Brown, with special acknowledgement to Megan Elizabeth Kula, RCEHN Director of Philanthropy for her leadership of the project, and to Neil Donnelly, Shelter Director.

In addition to the family suites with private baths, the Shelter includes a large community kitchen and living area, a children's play area and counseling rooms. "Parents can prepare meals with their children to be enjoyed in the dining room," said Brown.

Refugee Welcoming Committee of Frederick

How is ERUCC Helping Welcome Refugees to Frederick?

ERUCC is part of the Resettlement Welcoming Committee (RWC), a group of faith and nonprofit communities working together to find housing for refugees, beginning with the Afghan Allies that were evacuated in August 2021. Rebecca Shillingburg represents us; she is one of six people on RWC's Steering Committee. Other groups represented are the Islamic Society of Frederick, the UU Congregation of Frederick, the Frederick Friends Meeting, and the Asian American Center of Frederick (AACF). RWC also has volunteers from many other religious communities.

While RWC is open to working with other resettlement agencies, Lutheran Social Services of the National Capital Area (LSSNCA) opened an office here in Frederick in January and we have been working with them. However, staffing here and everywhere is still a major issue due to the sharp cuts in refugees admitted into the country during the Trump administration. Resettlement agencies everywhere cut back staff and now they are frantically hiring. Until they are fully staffed, RWC is doing much of the work that is traditionally done by a resettlement agency like LSSNCA.

RWC has now sponsored six families. We could sponsor more—there are many families still in hotels—but we struggle to find housing. We are currently working with LSSNCA, the Lutheran resettlement agency in the D.C. area. With the $1,225 the state department allocates for each person, they guarantee rental assistance for three months plus financial help until state benefits begin. Usually, those benefits begin after a month. LSSNCA applies for these benefits and can offer additional rent assistance if the adults are enrolled in English classes and searching for employment.

How Does RWC Help Refugees?

RWC furnishes refugee apartments with furniture and necessary household items from in-kind donations. The Frederick community has been so generous. We have been able to buy new bedding. Financial donations cover costs for mattresses and will provide rental assistance after money from other sources is no longer available. We stock the pantry with one week's food and welcome the family with a culturally appropriate meal.

RWC volunteers help register children in school, register adults for ESL classes and provide transportation to doctor appointments and ESL classes. There is so much that we need to do that we now have RWC case managers/mentors for each family and may expand that to family teams.

We have a team working on in-kind donations, though we are not taking any more right now. We have a volunteer finding on housing and assisting the LSSNCA's new housing hire as he learns about Frederick. She has found housing for four of our families, which is a major negotiating task with landlords since we want reasonable rent, no deposit, can't guarantee a full year, and usually need it ASAP.

For more information or to volunteer, visit our website www.rwcfrederick.org.

WORK CAMP TRAILER NEEDS

In 2013, thanks to the Eagle Scout Project of Alex Schaeberle and generous gifts from the congregation, the ERUCC work camp trailer became a reality. We have used it hard and often over the past nine years.

On our recent trip to Franklinton Center, it was determined that it is time to replace the worn original tires. The hitch is damaged and a backup light needs to be replaced.

We are seeking donations to cover the expenses of the purchase of three tires (including the spare) and the repairs. We anticipate that the cost for these items will be around $800 or less. We also need a new cooler on wheels.

If you wish to contribute to or sponsor these repairs, please contact Pastor Daniel.

A Simple Act of Love: Give it a try!

Financial Giving to God Must Include Helping People in Need.

How do you answer your child's call to help a person living on the streets?

We bear witness together to people who are homeless living in Frederick Maryland. When we give to UCC through One Great Hour of Sharing, we are sharing our ministry and resources to help our community's members stay safe, warm, and dry.

Just before the oft quoted statement that Jesus' disciples are to produce deeds, not just words, James reminds people about a brother or sister "without clothes and daily food." James' advice to stay warm and feel full have no value unless disciples help with physical needs. (James 2:14-19-23.)

In his biography of a famous 1840s British explorer, Edward Rice reports on conditions in Baroda, a state in India: "In the eyes of the rulers, as in the eyes of the gods, people ranked below cattle, and kindness to one did not necessitate kindness to the other." "Female infants were disposed of by an overdose of opium or by drowning in a hole filled with milk, for among Hindus girls are a liability." (Captain Sir Richard Francis Burton by Richard Rice, pp. 44-45)

When Christians live up to their biblical mandate, such behavior is not possible. Christians cannot with integrity separate faith from action, loving God, and behaving compassionately toward other people. Genuine Christians do not have biblically based faith if their care for the poor and needy is missing in action. The ethical monotheism of both the Old and New testaments says that people who love God point caring hands and generous pocketbooks in the same direction as their minds and mouths.

In what ways do today's Christians affirm and live out the theme that their financial giving to God includes helping people in need?

Trinity Chapel Report: The Campaign to Restore an Iconic Steeple

We have received a gift from the Delaplaine foundation for $25,000, and in addition, paid contributions $43,500 plus promises for additional $27,300. We have also received a challenge pledge of $25,000 from a long-time friend of ERUCC. If we are able to match the challenge pledge of $25,000 with $25,000 in new gifts, then we will be within $5,000 of our goal of $150,000 for the Trinity Steeple Campaign. We want to reach this goal by the end of September. Become a part of history and preserve Frederick's oldest steeple and town clock! Donations should be made payable to ERUCC and include Trinity Steeple in the memo line. Alternately, donations can be made online at <https://erucc.org/give-to-erucc> give online, indicating Steeple" on the memo line.

Plan also to join congregation and community members at a reception celebrating the Trinity Chapel steeple and town clock on May 25 from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Details will follow later in May, so mark your calendar to attend!

NEWS FROM CHRISTIAN KÖLZER

From Pastor Daniel

Some of you remember Christian Kölzer, who spent a year volunteering with the Religious Coalition from 2006 to 2007. Christian continues to maintain contact with ERUCC and he is my go-to guy for translating communication into German.

Christian and Angelina are the proud parents of two kids. Lotta is 10 months old now and Anton turned four the week before Christmas.

Christian writes, “Monday [April 11] will be the first mask-free day of classes since the beginning of the pandemic, so we’ll see how that works. Hopefully, we’ll also welcome the first Ukrainians soon. At UNESCO-Schule, which is where I work, we specialize in taking care of students from all around the globe, so we’re obviously more than ready to offer those refugees a home away from home. Considering that I speak a good deal of Russian, I’m getting ready for the intake process, etc. when I’m not teaching.

We’re basically just waiting for the government to give us the green light. Our congregation, on the other hand, can help more quickly than my school can. So we have been collecting donations, and the first mothers and their children live with people from church now.”

DAN PALLOTTA: The Way We Think About Charity Is Dead Wrong. Activist and fundraiser Dan Pallotta calls out the double standard that drives our broken relationship to charities. Too many nonprofits, he says, are rewarded for how little they spend—not for what they get done. Instead of equating frugality with morality, he asks us to start rewarding charities for their big goals and big accomplishments (even if that comes with big expenses). In this bold talk, he says: Let’s change the way we think about changing the world.

While Justice Sleeps is a cunningly crafted, sophisticated novel, layered with myriad twists and a vibrant cast of characters. The Only Woman in the Room
by Marie Benedict

Her beauty almost certainly saved her from the rising Nazi party and led to her marriage to an Austrian arms dealer. Underestimated in everything else, she overheard the Third Reich’s plans while at her husband’s side and understood more than anyone would guess. She devised a plan to flee in disguise from their castle, and the whirlwind escape landed her in Hollywood. She became Hedy Lamarr, a screen star.

But she kept a secret more shocking than her heritage or her marriage: she was a scientist. And she had an idea that might help the country fight the Nazis and revolutionize modern communication . . . if anyone would listen to her.

A powerful book based on the incredible true story of the glamour icon and scientist, The Only Woman in the Room is a masterpiece that celebrates the many women in science that history has overlooked.
